Kiwanis is a global organization of volunteers dedicated to changing the world one child and one community at a time.

The Kiwanis Club of Kernersville was established in 1988 and is chartered as a service organization through Kiwanis International, a worldwide nonprofit organization. We meet weekly on Wednesday, at 12:00 at Captain Tom's Seafood, located on Highway 66 South in Kernersville.

The Young Children Priority One Benefit Golf Tournament is our major fund raising project each year. These proceeds along with the time and talent of our volunteers are used to support programs, provide scholarships, and purchase dictionaries and supplies for our local schools and organizations.
